

SLIGHT DAMAGE
BY RUNAWAYDRIVER THROWN OFF WAGON
AND FOST TORN FROM BALCONY.

The building of the Mizpah Club was rocked to its foundations shortly after 7 o'clock last night, and A. H. Rounsevell thought that a carload of boosters had backed up to his door. The commotion was occasioned by a runaway. A light rig, driven by James Kealher, belonging to the Nevada Gas Company, was coming down Brougher avenue, from somewhere in the direction of Congressman Bartlett's new house, when the horse suddenly took fright and became unmanageable.

The driver yelled his fiercest, warning people to get out of the way, and the warning was not unheeded, for there was a racing and scampering for sidewalks and other safe places, as the horse tore madly on. He rounded the corner of Rounsevell's with a short turn and one of the wheels collided with the last post supporting the balcony of the Mizpah. The balcony came down with a crash and the driver was hurled from his seat to the ground. Kealher was removed to the Miners' Hospital, where it was learned that he was not seriously hurt. The wagon and the balcony were the worst.

GRAND JURY MEETS
THIS MORNINGPROBABLY HEAR EVIDENCE IN CASE OF STATE AGAINST EMERSON.

The Grand Jury will meet this morning to hear the evidence in the case of the State against Charles F. Emerson, who was held by Judge Brissell on the charge of murdering Joe Lafleur at Atwood. The case has stirred up considerable feeling between the towns of Atwood and Goldfield, and there will be an array of witnesses on both sides of the case. Two witnesses have arrived who will be against the defendant and there was a story published last night to the effect that a petition signed by many Atwood people demanding that Emerson be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. As a matter of fact there is no such petition in the office of the district attorney. At least that is the statement given out from the office last night.

The following witnesses arrived from Atwood last night, all of whom will testify in favor of Emerson: J. Urquhart, H. Urquhart, Thomas Clark, O. Wieland, Dr. Gill and Jas. Donahue.

COMMUNICATION.

To the Editor of the Daily Bonanza—Sir: Will you kindly allow the undersigned a little of your space in the interest of fair play? There was published this evening an article by the people who are behind the prosecution of Deputy Sheriff Emerson of Atwood, the tenor of which is calculated to bias public opinion against the defendant. I submit that such an attack is not subserving the best ends of justice. I am a citizen of Atwood, and was one of the coroner's jury that acquitted Emerson, after hearing the evidence in the case of the shooting of Joseph Lafleur.

I am not a friend of Deputy Sheriff Emerson; I cannot stand sponsor for his character, for I know nothing about it; but it occurs to me that to publish an article of the kind that I read this evening, appearing as it does upon the eve of the appearance of the defendant before the Grand Jury, is transgressing the bounds of common decency. I do not wish to discuss the evidence in this case, as I know it, for I do not believe that a newspaper is the proper sphere in which to try a man for his life.

In answer to the statement that a petition had been signed by the citizens of Atwood to the effect that Emerson be prosecuted to the full extent of the law, I want to say that this is misleading, for the sentiment of every man, woman and child in Atwood is in favor of Emerson, and the belief is that he did his duty and that he was compelled to shoot Lafleur in defense of his own life. A petition to this effect, signed by every man, woman and child of Atwood is in the hands of Emerson's counsel.

I ask only that this be published that the public might not form an erroneous opinion of the sentiment of the people who are most interested in the case. The case is in the hands of the Grand Jury, and the men who want to see fair play are perfectly contented to abide by the decision of that body. They do not believe for one moment that the publication of such an article can poison their minds in the case, for they are all well known citizens of this county whose standing is too high to entertain such a suggestion. It is only to the public in general that this communication is addressed.

Thanking you for your kindness in publishing the foregoing, I am
Yours very truly,
J. G. RICHARDSON.
Tonopah, Sept. 25, 1907.

ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED.

An engagement of interest, just announced, is that of Miss Heloise Chamberlain Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Williams of San Mateo, and Dr. Elton Davis of Tonopah. Miss Williams, who is an exceptionally handsome girl and a great favorite here, went to Tonopah for a visit about three months ago and upon her return last week surprised her friends with this announcement. She is a descendant of the Fairfax and Duval families, once so prominent in southern circles here, and connected with some of the best Virginia people. Dr. Elton Davis is a graduate of the University of California and already stands high in his chosen profession. No date has been set for the wedding, which will take place in the near future. Dr. and Mrs. Elton Davis will make their home for some years to come in Tonopah, where he has established his business.—San Francisco Call.

MACK FAILS TO
INDICT HEDDENESMERALDA GRAND JURY GIVES
RENO ATTORNEY DRESS-
ING DOWN.

GOLDFIELD, Sept. 25.—The Grand Jury made its report, and handed a lemon to Judge C. E. Mack, who has been retained by Esmeralda county for more than a year past as special counsel in the tax suits against the railroad. The jury recommends that Mack be summarily dismissed, as the county has no further use for him. The inquisitorial body also recommends that in future when special counsel is required that the county commissioners make an agreement as to compensation, and that if no such agreement be made that the auditor refuse to audit.

The main business of Judge Mack seems to have been an insane desire to have J. F. Hedden, superintendent of the Tonopah and Goldfield railroad, indicted for perjury. He failed to connect, although he was so sure of it that he gave an interview to a Reno paper to the effect that the Grand Jury would indict Hedden beyond a doubt. The Grand Jury not only did not indict the superintendent, but they gave the judge the graceful boot out. Following is an excerpt of the report of the jury regarding the matter:

"In the investigation of the affairs of the county, and particularly in the matter of the tax suits and the employment of special counsel to conduct the same, it appearing that there is no further need of the services of special counsel in the tax suits against the Nevada and California and the Tonopah and Goldfield railroad companies, it is recommended that the board of county commissioners dispense with the services of special counsel in the cases. Should at any time counsel be required in these cases, we further recommend that a contract or agreement be entered into with said counsel by the county commissioners for a stipulated compensation to be paid for their services. We further recommend that should no contract or agreement be entered into the auditor of this county use his veto power in all bills allowed for service in the matter."

BEAUTIFUL DISPLAY
OF FRESH FRUITSSOUTHERN NEVADA MERCANTILE COMPANY HAS GREAT SHOWING.

The Southern Nevada Mercantile Company had another of those striking displays of fruits and vegetables yesterday, for which they are rapidly acquiring a great reputation. A fresh carload came in by express and a finer lot of fruits were never more temptingly and artistically set out on the stalls. The showing could not have been beaten in California where such displays are almost meaningless, from the fact that there is so much fruit.

There were five different varieties of apples, and seven varieties of grapes. There were besides, pears, peaches, plums and canteloupes, and the grouping of the fruit was a most refreshing sight to the people of the desert. Needless to say the people were not slow in showing their appreciation, and the fact that there is another car coming today will bring out the lovers of good things to early marketing.

The Nevada Mercantile Company has again replenished its stock of groceries and the shelves are adorned with the best in that line that the market affords.

GUILD MEETING.

The regular meeting of St. Mark's Guild will be held in the guild room, Friday afternoon, Sept. 27. Members are urged to attend and friends are cordially invited.

WILL GIVE BULL'S
HEAD BREAKFAST

The tug of war event to be given in connection with the bull's head breakfast by the Goldfield Athletic Club next Sunday afternoon, near the foothills of the Mailpai, promises to be the banner attraction of the programme arranged by the sports committee.

Nace Grant, the well known fight arbiter and baseball umpire, has taken charge of one of the teams and Billy Ginsdoff will pilot the combination that will pull against Grant's men. Both managers have selected several good men, but are not ready to give out their respective lineups. It is known that some of the best talent in the West will be engaged for this affair and when the names are announced, there is sure to be many a good wager placed on the result.

The mountain climbing contest will be quite a unique feature and as there will be several experts in this line who will compete, the interest displayed already is of no small importance. Eddie Milne, the famous lacrosse player, is picked as a favorite in this event, but the Canadian will not have it all his own way, as several other good men are booked to take part in the race for the handsome shaving set which is the first prize.

The other events will be: 100-yard footrace, egg race for ladies, sack race, three-legged race, wheelbarrow race and a fifty-yard sprint between Secretary Slinkey and Manager Pat Gray. Appropriate and substantial prizes will be donated for all of these events.

Jim Konkel, Joe Germain, Spider Welch, Kid Husband, Kid Mack, Louis Pollin and several other experts will appear in boxing exhibitions.

FINE EXHIBITION
OF LEAF LEDGERS

There are now on exhibition in the office of The Bonanza, samples of leaf ledgers with the lock system, which have just been completed in The Bonanza bindery. The public in general, and the accountants, mining office men and brokers, in particular, are invited to visit the office for an inspection of the work that is being turned out. To those who have not had any work done by the bindery, the manner in which it is turned out will be a revelation.

We maintain, as we have right along, that the work, the execution and finish, cannot be excelled anywhere in the state, and nothing better can be turned out in San Francisco. It will pay to have your work done at home, and once you do this, you will do it ever after.

NEW PUBLICATION.

The Tuscara Mining News is at hand, and it is a very bright newsy and creditable production. We wish the new management all success in their new enterprise.

BADLY BURNED;
RESULT OF FRICTIONTAILOR IS CLEANING DRESS
WHEN FABRIC TAKES FIRE.

J. Kennedy, a tailor, whose shop is on Mineral street, just behind the Butler Theater, had a narrow escape from being burned to death and from setting his shop on fire yesterday afternoon. He was engaged in cleaning a gown belonging to Mrs. Jenny, the wife of Professor Jenny, when the garment was set afire by friction caused by rubbing it. In a moment the garment and Kennedy were enveloped in flames and the tailor was busy stamping the gown and himself out. He was badly burned about the face and hands, but bore his injuries like a Spartan, and as soon as he realized that the danger was over, he hurried to the Tonopah Drug Company to have his wounds dressed.
